Report on session conducted as the part of Staff Training on the topic 'Mentoring the mentors'

The session was conducted by IQAC of the college on 11th July 2022, by Ms. Heta Shah, a certified psychologist, joint founder of Astitva Clinic. The said session was conducted in the seminar room of the college, between 10.30am and 12.30pm. 31 teaching staff attended the session. Mrs. Hetal Rajgor, commerce and management department introduced Ms. Heta Shah and Mrs. Shruti Shouche, IQAC Coordinator expressed vote of thanks.

Ms. Heta Shah presented the ethics and all other requisites to become an effective, trustworthy and a proper mentor. She explained the difference between a teacher's role and a mentor's role in student's career and emotional development. She stated the need and method of documentation for the same.

It was a mesmerizing session for all teachers which certainly will help teachers to be good mentors and also to improve inter personal communication. Some glimpses of the session are –
